LEGION POST TO HAVE CLUB ROOMS

WILL ESTABLISH QUARTERS IN DR. F. M. RYAN BUILDING

PERMANENT HOME LATER

Boys Solicit Gifts from Friends Over the City to Aid in Furnishing.

Arrangements were made last night at a meeting of the James Edward Gray post, American Legion, for the establishment of temporary club quarters in the Dr. F. M. Ryan building on North Buchanan street.

The upper floor has been rented by the Post and the rooms will be furnished for use. No lease has been taken on the rooms for the reason that the men are working on a plan for a permanent club building which will take the form of an overseas hut. These plans are not fully drafted yet, but it is necessary for the Post to have some individual quarters until this permenant home is established.

They have been holding their meetings in the office of the county clerk in the court house.

The organization is out for new members to establish their rolls and the men are asking their friends over the city to aid in furnishing the club rooms.

Any one who has something to give is asked to notify the Chamber of Commerce, Hanamo 639, and leave their address. The boys of the Post will arrange to call for any articles and they will appreciate the help of the public in making their quarters comfortable The articles required are chairs, tables, pictures, books, magazines, rugs, large or small, book cases, curtains, davenports, lounges, a phonograph and records and such things that will bring pleasure and comfort to mens rooms. The permanent house committee appointed last night is composed of Edward Condon, Mitchell Welling and E. O. Williams.

The next meeting of the Post will be held in the new rooms on March 4.

Edward Condon was elected finance officer last night to succeed Ernest Alexander, who resigned on account of his absence from the city.

The Post also accepted the invitation of the D. A. R. to attend the Washington Memorial services of the chapter to be held Sunday morning at the Methodist church, South.

FAIR ASSOCIATION INTO THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

No Fair Will be Held this year—Liabilities are $4,279.57 and Assets $2,400.

The Maryville (Nodaway county) fair and agricultural association, through its vice president and general manager William Hanecy of St. Joseph, filed a petition of bankruptcy in the federal court in St. Joseph. The liabilities are $4,279.57, and assets $2,400. The principal items in the long list of unsecured claims are $2,500 due Hanecy for putting on the fair last year, $950 due Hanecy for bills he paid, and $375 due Charles Welty of St. Joseph for band music, and advertising according to the St. Joseph News-Press.

The fair association here has been controlled for the past two years by Mr. Hanecy and Mrs. Bertha Collins of St. Joseph. Mr. Hanecy has had charge of putting on the last two fairs and has made the books weekly reports to the association. Mrs. Collins has been secretary and treasurer. Both have drawn a salary of $50 per week during the fair and for several weeks before and after the fair. The receipts and many bills fell over were settled but not enough to pay all claims.

The fair grounds property was not included in the bankruptcy petition and it is believed that it will be sold before long. Mr. Williams stated he would rather sell the property to a fair association owned and controlled by Nodaway county people but he had a few other chances to dispose of the property.

FARMERS MOVING TO LOWER PRICED IMPROVED LANDS

Exodus From Other States Heavier Than From Missouri—Buy Low Priced Eastern Land.

While some Missouri farmers are answering to the luring call of low priced improved farms in other states, many other farmers, from many other states, are coming to Missouri to settle on improved farms here. This is one of the interesting facts disclosed in a statement just issued by the E. A. Strout Farmer Agency detailing the movements of the buyers of 5,668 farms valued at $17,996,000, sold by that agency during the past year.

Nine states outside of Missouri were represented among the purchasers of farms sold by the agency in Missouri during the year. Nebraska sent seven new farm families to the state, four each came from Iowa and Kansas and others were brought in from Colorado, Illinois, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas. Of the Missouri farmers who bought in other states last year, thirteen went to New York and others to Maryland, Michigan, Florida, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maine, Minnesota, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The statement shows that the movement of farmers from other states to this section to the lower priced lands in the East was much heavier than from Missouri. In the same period 305 farmers went East from Michigan, 196 from Illinois, 101 from Ohio, 48 from Wisconsin, 44 from Indiana, 45 from Iowa and 43 from Minnesota.

FATHER AND SONS AS REAL PARTNERS

BANQUET HELD LAST NIGHT AN ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

CLEVER PROGRAM GIVEN

Dads Share Honors with Sons in "Pep py" Hits and Speeches at First Methodist Church.

The First Methodist church last night was the scene of one of the most enjoyable and beneficial banquets held in Maryville for a long time. The occasion was the "Father and Son" banquet, and the festive throng for the occasion was composed of the fathers and sons of the church who enjoyed the splendid program rendered by the ladies of the church. Over one hundred and fifty persons were present. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Schlesinger for the splendid music gratis for the evening. The banquet was the outgrowth of the Father and Son campaign which was started a few weeks ago. Although the campaign was not entirely completed the banquet was given in order that the boys might have a good time. The banquet was served by the ladies of the church and was a splendid success. The menu was a delicious one and was enjoyed by all present.

The program was opened by the singing of "America" by the entire audience. Rev. Ben Schlesinger offered the invocation. Then the toastmaster, Rev. Ben Schlesinger, introduced Rev. Ben Hall, who gave a talk on "Father and Son." Rev. Hall said that the boys, which showed that they had not entirely forgotten their boyhood days.

George H. Colbert gave the first of the three minute talks on "Our Home." He briefly outlined the fundamentals that should be incorporated in every home. John Price talked on "Our Schools" and gave the different benefits derived from school and urged that every boy remain in school and get the most from it. Harold Honchens then touched on patriotism to our country and why everyone should strive to be a good citizen. Mayor Garrett in his talk on "Our Town" reviewed the progress of Maryville during the last few years, the great decline in number of arrests and the general betterment of the community. Fred Hull talked on "My First Girl" and it is thought that every Dad in the house agreed with him when he mentioned how he felt toward his first girl, when he was a boy. Ed Goforth's "Greatest Scare" proved to be a rail road wreck which he seen when he first started to work for the Burlington. John Phipps gave "The Best Joke I ever Heard" which happend to be a Dad and Son joke. Martin Lewis gave a very enjoyable talk on "At the Circus with Dad", in which he mentioned some of the experiences and pleasant times spent with Dad at the circus.

These talks were followed by a number of talks on Partners. Herman Hull in his talk on "Partners in the Home" set forth the value of such a spirit in the home and the beneficial guidance to the son, when the father felt the spirit of Partners. Richard Baker gave a very good talk on "Partners in Business" in which he said that all boys have ambition and to succeed in business on the "Golden Straight Triple" was an impossible combination of "Father and Son."

Rev. Gilbert S. Cox and Rev. P. C. Holliday made short talks on "Partners" and "Partners in the Sunday School and Church," in which they showed the close and friendly relationship that should exist between the Sunday School and Church and Father and Son.

The Dads and Sons were then presented by a chairman and each Dad was introduced to his son. The Dads quartette composed of Cox, Shoemaker, Holliday and Carter and the Sons quartette composed of Hall, Mater, Allen and Foreman. Both were encored several times. In the last number of the boys quartette, which was "Hail, Hail, We're full of Cheer" they unexpectedly substituted the words "Hail, Hail We're full of Beer", much to the enjoyment of the crowd.

Everyone present was unanimous in their decision that this occasion should be made an annual affair every February.

LOCAL HUNTERS GIVE CHASE TO WILD CAT AT GUILFORD.

It is rumored that a wild cat was seen the first of this week in the neighborhood of Joe Barnes and Jas. Wilson 2 or 3 miles east of Guilford and was seen by Chas. Wilson, Hobart Bledsoe, Willie Cox, etc. Something has been disturbing Pat Kelley's sheep and it is supposed that this wild cat is what has been doing the mischief.

On Tuesday of this week Chas. Wilson saw it feeding on the carcass of a dead horse. He phoned into town for some of the Nimrods of the country with their dogs, and a gang of about 15 gathered to give chase, but the dogs would not track it and it was not seen by the crowd.—Guilford Times.

LABOR TO TAKE PART IN STATE

TO URGE ELECTION OF CANDIDATES KNOWN TO BE FRIENDLY

ENDORSED A CANDIDATE

Senator McGruder of Sedalia Approved as a Candidate for Attorney-General.

By A. T. Edmonston.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 17.—That organized labor of Missouri is fully determined to take an active part in the future in state politics and strongly support and urge the election of such candidates for state offices, regardless of party affiliations, who are positively known to either stand for the welfare of the toiling masses, or have through actual performances in the past shown that they are friendly to the cause, is indicated by a printed circular letter, carrying the date of February 9, 1920, addressed to all central bodies, councils and labor unions of Missouri, bearing a fac simile of the seal of the state body and the names of George R. Patterson of St. Louis as acting president and Frank W. Brand of St. Joseph as secretary, approving and heartily indorsing the candidacy of State Senator Mark A. McGruder of Sedalia for the next attorney general of Missouri. This indorsement is construed to mean that organized labor of Missouri will use all honorable means to bring about his nomination to that place on the Democratic ticket at the August primary, and, finally, his election next November. As Democratic floor leader of the last senate, Senator McGruder steered to the passage point the present workmen's compensation law which has been generally accepted by the State Federation of Labor as being much needed legislation. As other Democratic or Republican candidates for state honors who have been friendly to organized labor of Missouri in the past, officially announce each will receive a similar indorsement, regardless of partisan alignments. The strength of organized labor in Missouri is placed at 125,000, with all in touch directly, or in close harmony, with the statewide body of which Patterson, who is really the first vice president, and who lives at 4157 Juniata street, St. Louis, acting as president in place of President R. T. Wood of Springfield, who is away on a leave of absence, looking after labor matters in Washington, D. C.

Included in this membership are 20,000 toiling women of Missouri who will, at least, next November be able to vote for president and vice-president of the United States, if not the entire state ticket. At the last national convention of the American Federation of Labor last July, at Atlantic City, a gathering which then represented 3,260,000 working men and women of the country, a membership which has now swollen to approximately 3,300,00, a new political policy was adopted. It was then decided that in the future at all elections friends would be rewarded through assisting to "elect to public office only men who have proven themselves to be true friends of organized labor."

State Senator McGruder is fortunate enough to be the first Missourian aspiring to public office, classed as a man who has proven himself in the past to have been "a true friend of organized labor of Missouri," and hence the indorsement of his candidacy.

Approves Compensation Law.

The Missouri State Federation of Labor circular calls attention, in the beginning, to the large victory for organized labor of the state through the findings and decision of Special Master in Chancery A. T. Dumm of Jefferson City in the workmen's compensation referendum contention which permanently enjoins state officials from submitting the measure to a statewide vote at the next election. It is further stated that the grounds of the Dumm decision were "that the referendum petition is not legally sufficient because of withdrawals and other defects, and that some of the circulators were guilty of frauds." Attention was also directed to the conclusion the special master found that almost the entier expense of circulating the referendum petition was paid by damage suit lawyers.

Toward the middle of this official pean of victory of organized labor of Missouri comes the paragraph which proclaims that the State Federation of Labor has actively entered the Missouri political field and is there to put only men over at primaries and elections who are positively known "to be true friends of organized labor." It reads:

"Enclosed is a poster of the candidacy of Hon. Mark A. McGruder for attorney-general. As a member of the Missouri State Senate, Senator McGruder proved a true friend of organized labor, and we request you to hang this poster in a conspicuous place in your meeting hall and do all you can to secure his nomination and election. This is in line with the policy of the American Federation of Labor that we should reward our friends and elect to public office only men who have proven themselves to be true friends of organized labor."

Wright and Meridith to Enter.

From Springfield comes the information that Lawyer Charles J. Wright, who was a member of the Forty-seventh House from the First district of Greene county, is ready to officially file for the Democratic nomination for attorney general, figuring that all of south Missouri will support him. Down in Popular Bluff, the southeast corner of the state, is Lawyer William H. Meridith who aspires for the same honor on the Democratic ticket of next November, subject to the primary of next August. He is also depending on south Missouri to give him enough votes to safely cross the Rubicon. Both men have made reputations for themselves battling against the John Barleycorn forces in the past in their respective counties and count on the "dry" vote of the party to rally behind them. As prosecuting attorney of Butler county Meridith squelched and finally put to flight a questionable element there and this crusade for law and order finally led to a victory for local option in that end of Missouri.

IT'S VERY SIMPLE IF YOU OBSERVE THIS FORMULA.

Springfield, Ill.—Harken to the wail of this taxpayer, who has written Collector of Internal Revenue Pickering thus:

"There need be but little trouble to figure your income tax. In the first place it may be worked out by algebra, astronomy, trigonometry or syntax and then your answer may be correct and it may not. If your income is $2,400 a year and you have a diamond ring and an automobile, and are married to a brunette girl twenty-six years old, you take the amount of your income and add your personal property, subtract your street number, multiply by your wife's height and divide by your telephone number. If you have a child in your family you subtract $200 from your income, add the amount of your personal property, multiply by your waist measure, subtract the size of your collar and your child's age, multiply by the amount you have given the church during the year and divide by the number of your automobile license tag. If there is a second child you deduct $400 from your income, add the weight and age of your birth, multiply by the size of your hat and subtract the weight of your mother-in-law. After you get it all figured out you won't have to pay any taxes of any name or nature, for they will have you in the booby hatch and strapped down."

DELICIOUS DESSERTS MADE FROM CANNED GRAPE JUICE.

Much grape juice is canned at home nowadays, for it makes one of the most refreshing drinks in hot weather, and as a base for desserts it can not be excelled. The following dessert recipes, using unfermented grape juice, have been suggested by the United States Department of Agriculture:

GRAPE SHERBET.

GRAPE ICE CREAM.

Mix 1 quart of grape juice, 1 quart of cream, 1 pound of sugar and the juice of 1 lemon. Freeze.

SYLLABUB.

Mix 1 quart of fresh cream, the whites of 4 eggs, 1 glass of grape juice, and 2 cups of powdered sugar. Whip half the sugar with the cream, the balance with the eggs; mix well; add the grape juice; pour over sweetened strawberries and pineapples or oranges and bananas. Serve cool.

BOHEMIAN CREAM.

Mix 1 pint of thick cream and 1 pint of grape juice jelly; pour into small cups and set on ice. Serve with lady fingers.

WEST WIND CONTROLLING

James Scarr Puts Skids Under Two Cherished Predictions Always Considered Infallible.

New York, Feb. 19.—Snow storms start somewhere up in Labrador or near the North Pole and travel southward until they reach the United States.

The wind that howls around tall chimneys and sends the snowflakes swirling and twirling across the open spaces or about the corners of buildings more often than not is the east wind.

Everyone who has seen a blizzard sweeping across the country or heard the east wind roar knows that the facts stated in the paragraphs above are fundamental. But harken to James Scarr, the government forecaster, who tells New York what the weather gods have in store for us.

"Snow storms always form in Arizona; there is no such thing as an east wind."

Fifteen words—count 'em. And in those fifteen words Scarr puts the skids under two convictions that most folks who have thought about the weather at all always have considered infallible.

Of course, Scarr says, people feel a zephyr now and then that strikes them from an easterly direction. These, however, he declares, are but a by-product of the good old reliable west wind which is the controlling air current of high atmospheric zones.

"It is another wise paradox that the westerly storm creates the easterly storm or gale from the east, as you might say," said Scarr. "Whirling eastward, the storm from the northwest or beyond the Rockies, forms a sort of vacuum, or you might call it so, and into this vacuum rushes a sort of back draft from the eastward, bringing with it the dampness and keen, penetrating airs of the ocean. Scientifically there is no east wind, but you will find it hard to convince most people of this fact, especially at this time of year.

"But how about the snow storms from Arizona?"

"Potentially snow storms do form in that general region of warmth, strange as it may seem. The area of low barometric pressure, or storm area, comes whirling eastward across the Gulf states and then generally takes a twist northward along the Atlantic seaboard. When sufficiently far north these warm air currents are chilled, and the moisture becomes snow, very often being borne to the earth by the back draft of east wind.

"So you see, to all intents and purposes, snow storms do come from the southward."

While on the subject of storms, Mr. Scarr remarked that the meteorological disturbances continually moving from west to east across the continent might be described as having the formation and whirling motion of a child's top. The storm, however, whirls in the opposite direction, or from right to left—anti-clockwise, the weather folk call it.

A new Elegance of Line Seen in this Chalmers

IT'S a car very easy to look at; and there's a wealth of comfort in those new type seat cushions of this Chalmers. Besides, this new elegance has in no way penalized roominess. At the radiator the lines are high. At the rear they are low.

From the cowl back the top line of the coach is low, but as you sit in the car you have a feeling this line is high.

Once in motion this position becomes even more alluring as you cling to the seat, note the absence of sidesway, and feel that the car is hugging the road closely.

Particularly is your enthusiasm stirred when you observe the ease of the engine's effort, its intense silence, the quick response when you turn loose the power stream.

You tacitly pay a compliment to Hot Spot and Ram's-horn, for they have Fletcherized the raw gas, utilized the last drop of power that nature stored away.

And you admire a Chalmers the more for it, for in addition to its beauty of action, it is arrayed in new garments that are refreshing to a degree.

GOVT. HAS FOREIGN LANGUAGE SERVICE

KNOWN AS BUREAU OF FOREIGN LANGUAGE INFORMATION

4200 APPLY EACH MONTH

Much Individual Service Rendered in Addition to Vast Amount of National Work.

Washington, Feb. 19.—To preserve its usefulness to the nation and the newly arrived within its gates the Foreign Language Governmental Information Service, formerly a part of the Committee on Public Information, has been taken over by the American Red Cross, it was announced today. Operating in conjunction with the already established Red Cross Information Service it will be known as the Bureau of Foreign Language Information.

The Foreign Language Governmental Service was organized in 1918, to distribute to foreign speaking groups in this country information on America's purpose in the World war. It consists of bureaus covering 17 foreign language groups—Czecho-Slovak, German, Hungarian, Italian, Jugoslav (Serbian, Groatian, Slovenian), Lithuanian, Polish, Russian, Finnish, Dutch, Danish, Norwegian, Swedish and Ukrainian. In addition there are executive and American press bureaus, the latter giving to the native born information on the foreign speaking groups designed to overcome false prejudices and misunderstandings and brings to the attention of the American public the immediate contributions of the foreign born.

The service informs the alien in his own language about the Government, and the laws of this country; explaining what the government expects of him, and what it offers him, thus clearing up his misconception and adjusting his difficulties. As a result of the many appeals from the foreign born groups for disinterested information on the subject of health, citizenship, agriculture, American history, etc., the service has printed and circulated 92,000 pamplets in Russian, Ukrainian, Hungarian and Polish. To more than 800 foreign language papers of the seventeen foreign language groups the service sends information daily from 58 departments and bureaus of the government. Over three quarters of a million words concerning government information appear each month in these 800 papers. More than 67,000 foreign language organizations extend their co-operation to the service.

In addition to this volume of work which is carried on constantly, invaluable individual service is rendered. On an average of 4,200 individuals a month have applied during the last six months, through letters or personal calls, for information and help in their relations with government department On the Income tax, the foreign bureau corresponded or talked with 12, 872 persons within six months and each of them had his claim adjusted satisfactorily or his status made clear.

More Proof

of the superiority in the wear and tailoring of

Our Suits

A young fellow steps into our store last week and says, "here are the pants to a suit of clothes I bought from you seven years ago and I would like for you to have them duplicated for me, so I can wear out the coat, because it is the BEST FITTING and WEARING Suit I have ever had and have tried other stores and tailors in the meanwhile." A look at the buttons indicated they were made by HART SCHAFFNER & MARX. His order did not stop with one pair of pants, but for one of their make of suits for Spring in the best cloth he could buy.

(This statement from this young man came absolutely unsolicited.)

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

A Missouri Woman Who Was "Down and Out"

Kansas City, Mo.—"Several years ago I was almost 'down and out' with woman's weakness. I suffered so I would be bedfast an entire week at a time. I had known of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription all my life as a wonderful tonic for women, but I neglected trying it in my own case until I just had to resort to something for relief. Then I purchased a bottle and it certainly proved itself to be the right medicine. I then took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery along with the 'Favorite Prescription' until I was eventually cured of this ailment. I have taken the 'Golden Medical Discovery' since for neuralgia and it gave me almost immediate relief."—MRS. BULA BIERMAN, 345 N. Hardesty Ave.

For Young Girls

E. St. Louis, Mo.:—"Before I married I suffered severely at times with backaches at certain times until I took 'Favorite Prescription.' I never took any medicine in my life that proved so beneficial as the 'Favorite Prescription' did. It not only relieved me at the time, but I have had no periodical trouble since nor backaches so have no hesitancy in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to young girls who suffer, for I know it will benefit them just as it did me."—MRS. LOUISE OELLERMANN, 2607 Palm St.

You can write Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, he will tell you what to eat and how to live so that more uric acid will not form in your system. No charge for this advice.

NO SPOONING IN AIRPLANES

Sheer Impossibility of Sociability While Flying May Constitute Bar to Popularity.

The most fatal thing of all at the present time to the popularity of flying is its unsociability. The pilot may have the profile of a Greek god, but if every time he turns it to speak it is necessary to shut off the engine, and one's heart stops, too, it is difficult to think of a witty response. And mostly he does not turn it. All one has for company is the upper two-thirds of the back of a leather helmet. As a match-making proposition the airplane is a failure. And as for descending in some flowery meadow and there saying all the things he has been thinking up while in the air, I can only say personally that after two hours of flying, I was stone deaf, and I wouldn't have known whether he was telling me he adored me or was asking me if I wanted a drink of water.

I was quite deaf for some time. We landed at an army aviation field before a lot of ground mechanics and flyers, and if I expected that the removal of my goggles and discovery of my sex was going to make any sensation I was disappointed. D'you think they ran up and shook me by the hand and observed that I was a brave woman?

They did not. A man in overalls came up and I gathered by lip reading and his gestures that we weren't wanted where we were, and to move on down the field and park somewhere else. No newspaper men, no excitement, no cameras. Was this thing to be lost to the world?—Mary Roberts Rinehart, in Saturday Evening Post.

A THREE PLOW TRACTOR.

The Waterloo Boy Tractor's reputation is founded on satisfaction like this:

Dayton, Ia.,
March 14, 1919.

John Deere Plow Co.,
Moline, Ill.

Gentlemen:—We have on our 280-acre farm here in Webster county one Waterloo Boy Two-Speed Tractor, and will say now that we could not have selected a better one. For economy in fuel and lubricating oil, it can not be surpassed. The ignition is grand. I have not had a spark plug out to clean since I began fall plowing, and up to date have plowed 100 acres of hard stubble, have ground feed, and have shelled several thousand bushels of corn.

Last fall we also operated a 22-40 Waber Thresher and will say we did it with the greatest of economy. Our kerosene bill never reached the twenty-gallon mark for the average thresherman's day.

I, myself, have operated eight different makes of tractors and positively know that not one of the seven come up to the eighth, the Waterloo Boy. And can say that the showing our tractor made and the success we have had with ours was the reason that our two closest neighbors bought Waterloo Boys.
